

Sprint Report #4

Product: Digital Cookbook, Team: “Too many cooks”, December 1st 2019

Actions to stop doing:

- The team should try not to talk over one another in actual meetings and let everyone have a say in things

Actions to start doing:

- The team should try to be more communicative and provide constant updates to the rest of the group so everyone is on the same page
- The team should work to review more pull requests and comment more on scrum board topics

Action to continue doing:

- The team should continue splitting user stories into very small and independent tasks. It makes it easier for developers to find work and enhances the visibility of work done.
- The team should continue using online collaboration and communication tools like google docs and discord to work together effectively.
- The team should continue working to meet the product requirements i.e. definition of done

Work completed(User stories):

- As a user, I want to be able to add recipes to my favorites list for easy access later(6).
- As a user, I want the app to be visually appealing and coherent(4)
- As a developer, I want unit testing to reduce defects and time spent on manual testing(4).
